Saltwell News

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Mrs. Phyllis Brady spent Friday afternoon with her uncle, Wilford Doyle, at the Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home. Mrs. Mildred Gifford and Mrs. Phyllis Brady enjoyed the Rutgers Methodist Camp Meeting on Tuesday night. Mrs. Bobby Brady enjoyed the day Sunday at the Clintonville Nazarene Church Homecoming and Day of Honor for Letha Adams who was a charter member and had been so faithful in her labor and prayer and giving. Lunch was served in her yard and Dan Adams gave a very interesting history of the church and there was a gospel sing in the afternoon. It was also Mrs. Adams 89th birthday.

The Reverend and Mrs. Vernon Adams so graciously welcomed "God's Family" several years ago. Mrs. Gary Hollar Adams, as everybody called her, was the most influential person in their life. The Saltwell, Mr. Pleasant and Rose Hill Churches held their Methodist men's picnic at the Harrison R.E.C. grounds on Friday night. Gary, Fred and Myril Hollar visited Garland "Albe" Earlywine at the Veterans' Hospital, Lexington, on Wednesday. Garland was able to be moved to the hotel Gateway later that day. He has had many visitors since going to the hospital. The Headquarters United Methodist Church will have a white elephant sale at the Masonic Lodge at Headquarters this Tuesday night, August 7, at 7 P.M. All the invited to come, sell and buy and join in the fun and fellowship.

Rebecca and Jennifer Fryman, who have spent several days visiting Mr. and Mrs. Louis Fryman of Elizaville, returned to their home near Birmingham, Alabama on Tuesday. Mrs. Richard Cain, Sr., entered Harrison Memorial Hospital on Thursday where she remains a patient for treatment at this time. Bob Kenney, Covington, visited Mrs. Gladys Kenney on Saturday and Mr. and Mrs. William Twigg of Bourbon County also visited her later that evening. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling spent several days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Bonnie Gibson and Mrs. Marcus and Nikki of Palmyra, Tennessee. Mrs. Gary Hollar, Mrs. Jerry Galbreath and Andrea, Diane Smith and Shelby Hamilton spent several days the past week at Gatlinburg, Tennessee. The Reverend and Mrs. Jonathan Smith and Andrew visited friends in Wilmore on Wednesday. A large crowd enjoyed the hymn sing at the Ironville Baptist Church on Saturday night. Refreshments were served on their break by ladies of the church. Andrew Smith spent Friday with Clinton Jones. The major graduate of 1970 from Belvoir High School, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stone, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allison, Diane Smith, Shelby Hamilton, Phillip Calderin, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar, Mrs. Dorothy Gause, Mrs. Brenda Kaufman and Mrs. Hilda Foyner, Lexington, visited Mrs. Hester Gray on Sunday at night. They all along with Massi Gause and Lela Schaffer dined at Gettys Restaurant and also sent Mrs. Gray her lunch. Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy and Olive Hill, Mrs. Arlene and Mrs. Mark Devenney of Louisville, Amanda had spent the week with the McCoys. Mr. and Mrs. I.A. Gause entertained with a cocktail on Wednesday with the following present: Mr. and Mrs. Hester Gray, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mann and son of Lexington, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gause, Carlisle, and Amanda Gause. Our community extends sympathy to the family of Mrs. Ruth Curtis, who passed away Friday at Johnson-Mathers Nursing Home after a long illness. The funeral was conducted on Sunday at the Mt. Olivet Funeral Home.

Blood drive held

Company D 201st Engineer Battalion sponsored a blood drive July 27th through Central Kentucky Blood Center.

The response was excellent with 27 units of blood collected. Company D's leadership has demonstrated their commitment to the people of Nicholas County by allowing their men the convenience of on-site blood drives. The success of this drive is due to the cooperation of many people including Sergeant Jim Galbraith, who coordinated the drive, and the Company D men who showed their concern for their community by sharing the "gift of life". The following people were able to try to share their good health by donating blood at the Company D blood drive: David Harold C. Gause; Brent E. Galbraith, James Jr.; Paifrey, Arnold M.; Allen, Thomas G.; Lawson, Christopher D.; Jamison, Michael B.; Capps, Oliver T.; Stone, Gary K.; Nickerson, Michael T.; Perry, Patrick L.; Crouch, Andrew L.; Brown, William E.; Shank, Richard T.; Jones, Adam K.; Purrell, Larry D.; Charles, Gary J.; Williams, Sanford D.; Metcalf, Stephen K.; Hines, Billy R.; Jentsch, Raymond W.; Galloway, William W.; Johnson, John W.; Gregory, Joseph F.; Farrow, Steven R.

Prayer For "Warrior" "In Memory of Dennis Clark Watkins"

Silent, a warrior rest. His shield lays with him. It is his heart he has traveled far but yet too short. He is awake in our minds. The Memory Listens. A spiritual drum beats. It announces the arrival of the Great Spirit. It comes to take this warrior's home. He is Safe Now! You, Mr. Policeman with nothing better to do with your handcuffs, cannot reach him. You, Mr. Prosecutor, with a split in your mind, Your recommendations, mean nothing to him. You, Mr. Judge, who sits on your so called throne, He is not in your court now. The Warrior is Resting. The System Can't Hastle You Now. Bro. Ride Free

Lawmakers attempting to stop amendments

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tobacco-state lawmakers try to kill a farm bill amendment creating a new anti-smoking program in House-Senate conference. A possible third amendment would have a devastating impact on tobacco farmers, but Rogers and Rep. Larry Hopkins, R-Ky., say they believe they can prevent it from coming to a vote on the Senate floor. The amendment, proposed by the conference committee of Agriculture Committee members from both bodies, said U.S. Representative Harold "Hal" Rogers, R-Ky. The amendment, expected to be offered by Rep. Richard Durbin, D-Ill., a leading anti-smoking lawmaker, would manufacture tobacco products, and not leaf tobacco. Committee to take sides

By Mark Chelgren Associated Press Writer PLEASANT HILL, (AP) — The decision by the Pridard Committee for Academic Excellence to take sides in the debate over tax increases could endanger the group's credibility, members warn. The 10-year-old education advocacy group voted July 23 to make a public defense of the school package adopted by the General Assembly this year, especially the $1.3 billion tax increase to 94 percent, the figure preferred by the Pridard Committee. The wide variations depend on what figures are used to continue to hammer on this two-year budget period, whether to separate the tax increase by itself and what to include within the definition of education. The Pridard Committee will support the proposition that 94 percent of the tax increase will go to education. That presumes the narrowest definition of education and the broadest definition of education and includes additional funding for universities and all vocational and adult education programs. Wade Mounts, chairman of the committee, said the higher figure is defensible. Wade Mounts, chairman of the committee, said the higher figure is defensible. "I think we're going to continue to hammer on this two-year budget period, whether to separate the tax increase by itself and what to include within the definition of education. That presumes the narrowest definition of education and the broadest definition of education and includes additional funding for universities and all vocational and adult education programs. Wade Mounts, chairman of the committee, said the higher figure is defensible.
