Bond's Broadcast By Hank Bond

Just a little more than a week ago the City of Carlisle and Nicholas County lost a friend in Allen Earlywine.

He was not only a dedicated police officer and public servant he was a friend to many people.

I'll never forget the time he skated across a slippery Sycamore Street to help pull a stalled station wagon and its occupants out of a jam.

No one in a position such as being chief of police is going to make everyone happy...

But I will dare say Allen had more people who liked him than those who did not.

Allen was the second person I had the opportunity to meet when coming to Carlisle.

His popularity and peoples' respect for his position was certainly evidenced by the large number attending the funeral services, last Thursday.

The Mercury family extends its condolences to his wife, children and other members of his family.

There's no doubt it is a loss to the people here to everyone... about the only thing left is to wish him God's Speed.

And so, for another week, thanks and thirty.
