Students named Who's Who

A total of 50 students from this area have been included in the 24th Annual Edition of WHO'S WHO AMONG AMERICAN HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS, 1989-90.

WHO'S WHO, published by Educational Communications, INC., Lake Forest, Illinois, is the largest high school recognition publication in the country. Students are nominated by high school principals and guidance counselors, national youth groups, churches or by the publishing company based upon students' performance in scholarship award contests or extracurricular activities.

Final selection is determined on the basis of criteria which include high achievement in academics and leadership in school activities, athletics or community service. Traditionally, 99 percent of WHO'S WHO students have a grade point average of "B" or better and 97 percent are college bound.

The 24th edition of WHO'S WHO, published in 15 regional volumes, features over 650,00 students, or 5 percent of the nation's 12,000,000 high school students. They represent 18,00 of the 22,00 public, private and parochial high Schools in the country.

Who's Who students also compete for over $65,00 in scholarship awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll awards and participate in the publication's annual opinion poll of teen attitudes. The book is distributed to 15,00 high schools, colleges, universities, and public libraries throughout the country.

Local students selected for this year's volumes are:

Karen Banta, Jennifer Beatty, Sarah J. Cox, Becky J. Dale, Cynthia Fryman, Cassandra D. Gilvin, Robin Griffith, Jill Hardin, Julie A. Herrington, Amy Renee Hill, Charbel Joseph, Aaron Judge, Martha Livingood, Emily McMillen, Christy D. Sexton, Janella Sibert, John M. Smart, Kim Tackitt, Greg Watkins, Latoya N. Williams,

Hey kids, write Santa

In keeping with a long-standing tradition, The Carlisle Mercury will again publish letters to Santa this Christmas season.

Youngsters are invited to write Santa, in care of The Mercury, telling what they want him to bring them for Christmas. Mothers and fathers may help tiny tots send along their wishes.

Grown ups are encouraged to participate by sending us their remembrances of Christmases past, or whatever might be appropriate during the holiday season. Letters will appear in issues prior to Christmas, hopefully all at one time depending on the amount we receive.

Deadline for letters to Santa is December 16. So get busy, it's later than you think.

Mr. and Mrs. Harris

Worthington—Harris are wed

Miss Laura Elizabeth Worthington, daughter of Kentucky State Representative and Mrs. Pete Worthington, of Ewing, became the recent bride of Gregory L. Harris, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry L. Harris of Glasgow.

The ceremony was impressively solemnized at 6:30 p.m. August 11, 1990 at the Broadway Christian Church in Lexington. Rev. Barry Stephens, pastor of Columbia Avenue Church of Christ in Glasgow, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Lois Baltzer presented a program of traditional wedding selections and accompanied the soloist, Angela Mills Motley of Glasgow.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose an elegant gown of white silk shantung with accents of beaded french re-embroidered alencon lace. Alencon lace and pearls accented the small pouf off the shoulder sleeves and dropped waist line giving a very feminine affect. The semi-cathedral train featured a shantung peplum accented with alencon lace and three blush silk shantung roses. She wore a matching split cathedral veil edged with pearls and accented with blush silk roses. The gown and veil were designed by Frank Masandrea and were from the Diamond Collection. She carried a traditional all white cascade arrangement of mini carnations, bridal roses, gardenias and stephanotis. Her bouquet was accented with pearls and a soft blue organdy handkerchief belonging to the late Elizabeth Graham Sauerwun, Laura's aunt for whom she was named.

Miss Julie Jean Worthington was her sister's maid of honor and was attired in a tea length gown of seafoam green polished cotton fashioned with puffed sleeves and a v-ed back styled with a bow accented with a blush silk rose matching those of the bride's gown.

The bridesmaids were Miss Laura Barber of Lexington, Mrs. Piper Mullikan of Lexington and Mrs. Candy Fleming Bradshaw of Frankfort. They were gowns identical to that of the honor attendant with earrings styled of emerald and rhinestones complimenting the bride's engagement ring. These were gifts of the bride to her attendants. They carried cascading hand bouquets of roses, lilies, mini carnations and blue statice accented with green, pink and white picot ribbon.

Little Miss Megan Harris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Mike Harris of Glasgow, was the flower girl. She wore a white polished cotton dress accented with seafoam green ribbon and carried a sating and lace basket with gardenia petals.

Serving as ring bearer was Master Jonathan Alexander, son of Mrs. Nancy Logan of Corbin and Randy Alexander of Berea. He carried a satin pillow with seafoam green ribbons and pearls.

Jerry L. Harris served his son as best man and groomsmen were Mike Harris, Glasgow, brother of the groom, Greg Motley of Lexington and Jim Own of Louisville. Ushers were Weston W. Worthington of Fort Thomas, brother of the bride, Mike Green of Frankfort, Larry Jenkins of Frankfort and Scott Pitcock of Glasgow.

Miss Annette Jett Middleton of Lexington, cousin of the groom, presided at the guest register.

A reception followed at Bell House, Bell Court, in Lexington. The five tiered wedding cake was highlighted with flowers matching those of the honor attendants and the bride's table was accented with the attendants bouquets.

The bride is a graduate of Fleming County High School and will graduate in December from the University of Kentucky with a degree in Education.

Laura is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Power of Carlisle and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin L. Buster Worthington of Ewing.

The groom is a graduate of Glasgow High School and Eastern Kentucky University with a degree in business Administration. He is employed by the Kentucky Revenue Cabinet in Frankfort.

Following a honeymoon cruise to the Bahamas, the couple are making their home in Frankfort, Kentucky.
