KENTUCKY'S WAITING CHILD

Ten year old Coddie, eight year old Lakin and six year old Maggie are sisters whose loving families is playing together. They are outgoing and lovable. They all do well in school.

Kentucky has over 275 children waiting for an adoptive family. Like Coddie, Lakin and Maggie, these children were in foster homes, if they are lucky. Kentucky has a shortage of foster and adoptive homes for minority and white children.

The Department for Social Services is looking for people who can make a commitment to children. You can be single, an apartment dweller, or have a moderate income. There is no fee charged for services.

If you want to make a difference in the life of a child, consider fostering or adoption. For information call:
