Who's Just? By George L. Rogers

The word "justification" is an interesting word. It is defined as to be proved from sin. Who was delivered for our sins? Who was delivered for our sins? Who was delivered for our sins?

Kentucky's Waiting Child

This active, delightful twelve year old is Annie. She enjoys skating, riding bicycles, and of course, chit-chatting on the phone. She would love to have lessons every day. Annie needs a home to call her own.

Dad should be at the center of things

On the day of Pentecost, Peter told his audience that he believed that Christ had been raised, to resurrect and be glorified with faith in his resurrection where we can be saved. This is why baptism is so important.
