Hilander.....

Continued from Page 1
Hilander finally broke the Bluejacket stall with two steals and four quick points for the Jackets.
Hilander hit twice more and added 3 pointer to keep the Jackets in the game.
At halftime the Saints lead 42-29.

With 3 pointers from Hilander and Daniel Brown and a score from David Sparks, the Jackets closed to 47-37 in the opening minutes of the second half.

The Nicholas County surge was short-lived as the Saints kept the Jackets at bay.
Hilander nipped another 3-pointer at 3:55 to keep the Jackets trailing by 15 points.

The Saints spread their lead to 20 points early in the fourth quarter with a 24-24 score.

Sparks fouled out of the game with 5:29 remaining.
Brown heeded 11 points, and Sims scored eight.
