Jill will appear in the All-American Scholar Directory, which is published nationally.

"Recognizing and supporting our youth is more important than ever before in American history. Certainly, winners of the All-American Scholar Awards should be congratulated and appreciated for their dedication to excellence and achievement," said Dr. George Stovens, Executive Director of the United States Achievement Academy.

The Academy selects All-American Scholars on the basis of their academic achievement. The United States Achievement Academy has established the All-American Scholar Award Program in order to offer deserved recognition to superior students who excel in the Academic disciplines.

The All-American Scholar Award Program is a result of military service. The award is presented to students who are recognized by the USAA for other honors.

Sunnyside Homemakers The Sunnyside Home-makers' meeting Tuesday, March 20, at the home of Eleanor Bramel. Lavinia McFarland called the meeting to order. Eleanor Bramel gave the devotional. The secretary was Solomon 2:11-13, followed by all repeating the Lord's Prayer. A reading about Spring was read. The roll call was answered with six members and Margie Wilson telling their most memorable day to March. Minutes were read and the treasurer's report was given.

Old business was discussed, concerning how the monthly club given to the extension office kitchen would be used. It was decided to buy some silverware. Mrs. Wilson made several announcements. They were: An Aids program to be held Tuesday night, March 27, at the library; the annual county homemakers meeting, April 19, at the elementary school, supper at 6:30, speaker for the evening; Beverend Don Daylock, and Monday night, April 16, the training school for the Mid Year Life lesson will be held, in which Phyllis Brady will attend.

Linda told what the lessons would be about for the next calendar year, September through July. Some chose the ones that they would do. It was also decided that the meetings would be held each month at the same homes as now.

A delicious meal was served. Margaret Hoover was the guest for lunch and afternoon session. Louise Carter, showed some slides she had made. A game was played and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be their daughter, Sherry K. Moore to Philip Lane Patrick of Jeffersonville.

The wedding and reception were held at the home of the bride's parents on March 18, 1990 at 4:11 p.m.

Roberta Mitchell served as maid of honor and English Moore served as best man.

All-American Scholar American Scholars upon the exclusive recommendations of teachers, coaches, counselors, and other qualified sponsors. Once awarded, the students may be recognized by the USAA for other honors.

Vote To Reelect ADRIAN ARNOLD

Hello From Frankfort I'm Adrian Arnold. While I am an Active Candidate for reelection to the Ky. House of Representatives to serve Bath, Montgomery and Nicholas Counties, I am now participating in Kentucky's General Assembly, during the regular session.

I have not had the opportunity to meet and talk with many of you during the session. I do appreciate the support you have given me for the past 16 years, and hope to have the opportunity to continue serving you.

I believe in Kentucky and our system, and know that I can continue to serve YOU in an efficient manner. I hope to see as many of you as possible before the May 29 Democratic Primary, to discuss Kentucky's future. I do appreciate your support.

Parke Homemakers The Parke Homemakers met March 12 at 1:30 p.m. at the Extension Office. The meeting was called to order by our Vice President Eva Grimes. Emma Frances Blum gave the devotion. Roll call was answered by seven members and Mrs. Marjorie Wilson. Each member told about the most memorable day in March. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Zona Mae Alexander gave the treasurer's report. We decided not to go to Edith Bryan's home in April, and made plans to go in June. Next month's meeting place wasn't decided until a later date.

Our club will have a shower for our new kitchen at the extension office. Next meeting each member will bring ten towels, dish clothes and pot holders. The annual County Meeting will be April 19 at 6:30 p.m. at the Elementary School.

Our club will have three general meetings during the year. The International Meeting will be the first week of May. We elected new officers for the coming two years: Marie Crawford, President; Wilma McClanahan, Secretary; Zona Mae Alexander, Treasurer.
