

GENERAL NEWS

The Nicholas County Conservation District awarded Allen B. Whaley, left, with its Outstanding Achievement Award and to Phyllis Guthrie, right, the Outstanding Conservation Education Teacher award at the district's annual banquet Friday, March 30.

Whaley receives achievement award

Nicholas County has always enjoyed a rich agricultural heritage and some of those who make that possible were recognized Friday night, March 30 during the Nicholas County Conservation District annual awards banquet.

School systems for 10 years, the last three serving as educator and coordinator of the Gifted and Talented program at the elementary school. She has been responsible for numerous conservation education activities at school and her efforts have helped improve the role of students by giving them a better understanding of conservation.

The Carlisle Mercury Photo Specialist Leavitt's Channel 36 WTVG, news correspondent John Lindgren addressed members of the Academic Boosters before the awards portion of the program commenced Wednesday Night. Lindgren entertained the audience with anecdotes from his years as a television journalist and described some of the special effects used in news broadcasting.

Allen B. Whaley of 858 Mansfield Road received the Outstanding Achievement Award for his efforts in applying conservation practices and management recommendations. According to board chairman Edgar Darrell, Whaley has taken care of and improved his land through his ownership. He has received the honor, Darrell said.

Donna Galbraith, district clerk, was recognized by the board members with a plaque.

Phyllis W. Guthrie of 218 Elm Street, Mrs. Guthrie has been teaching at the Nicholas County Conservation District since 1978. She has been teaching at the Nicholas County Conservation District since 1978. She has been teaching at the Nicholas County Conservation District since 1978.

Particularly a talkative teenager on the phone. If you're using your phone and someone is trying to get through, Call Waiting will sound a tone to let you know there's another call. So you don't have to worry about missing an emergency or other important call.

There are other services that make your life easier, too. Call Forwarding lets you transfer your calls to any other number you choose. So you don't have to stay by the phone waiting for important calls. And when you're not at home, you don't have to worry about an unanswered phone telling strangers your speed.

Speed Calling lets you reach any eight selected numbers by dialing only one digit. It's great for three-way calling in an emergency and for planning meetings. It lets you talk to two different people in two different locations - at the same time - even if the calls are long distance. (Long distance rates may apply).

Plus these services are affordable. Just $2.75 a month for any one service. Additional services are $1.75 or order all four for just $8 a month.

And if you order before May 31, you can save the $15.50 connection charge. To order, just call 1-577-4400, toll-free. Or to order any time, day or night, from a Touch-Tone phone, use convenient RightTouch® service. See your latest phone bill for information on how to use it.

Save the $15.50 connection charge if you order before May 31.
