

GENERAL NEWS

The Carlisle Mercury/John Shepherd Photo

Nicholas County High School Ecology Club members Chris Adams and Melissa Davis drag garbage out of the culvert running along the outside fence of school grounds as part of their obligation in the Adopt-A-Highway program. The Ecology Club's adopted highway runs along most of Old Paris Road.

James McIntyre takes advantage of the first few warm days of Spring to plow and turnrow land along Old Paris Road to set the stage for a new Carlisle family to begin setting a yard for a new home.

Student of the Week

Name: Nick Nichols
Age: 17
Grade: Junior
Parent/Teacher: Judy Nichols
Extracurricular activities: French Club, Chess Club
Interests: Draw, fish, reading
Plans after high school: Wants to go to Air Force Academy, if not join the Air Force (a college in G.I. Bill)
Reasons chosen by faculty: Hard working and ambitious. Seems to want more out of school than expected. Hardly a problem and a genuine pleasure to work with. Comments: Honored to receive this award. Never expected to receive it. Want to thank the teachers responsible for giving me this award.

TERMITES
Can Wreck Your Home
Facts you should know about TERMITES: Termites make for a times as many homes as locusts.
Over 85,000 American homes will need the protection this year. But termite will be discovered in more than 2,000,000 homes. About one out of five homes! That's why termite protection is as important to you as your home's structural points.

STOP THE GARBAGE!!!
Some things cannot and should not be accepted. Out-of-state garbage and toxic waste must be stopped now. The big corporations are concerned with only one thing, profits. Profits at the expense of our land, water and air.
You Have a Choice!
You can have more of the same old shallow promises and disappointments...or aggressive leadership for a change!
TOM HOGGE
Candidate for State Representative offers us a change. An opportunity to stop making excuses. A chance to do something...before it's too late.
As our Representative, Tom Hogge will accept NO MORE EXCUSES! NO MORE COMPROMISES! NO MORE OUT-OF-STATE GARBAGE AND TOXIC WASTE!

NOTICE
Our spring plants and garden plants are ready. We buy only the best seeds, use the best dirt and give them T.L.C. We don't have everything, but we do have 250,000 plants raised by our Nicholas County Gang!
