Dr. Marium Williams, assistant principal of the Nicholas County Elementary School, has resigned her position to accept an associate professorship at Morehead State University next year.

For Home Health Care WEDCO is meeting the need

By Job Shephard
The Carlisle Mercury Staff
Due to the rising cost of hospital care, the need for home health care has grown...

That aren't going to end soon. Therefore they must alter their lifestyle to accommodate their condition, she said.
WEDCO assists patients to cope with the change and to develop skills which will allow them to lead a relatively normal life.

state government Williams feels both her eleven years as an administrator equipped with over 20 years teaching experience in both high school and elementary education will serve well in class instruction of future Kentucky school administrators.
"1 feel the opportunity to teach at Morehead will give me an influential platform to stress the importance of education. Areas I feel most administrators take lightly."

ATTENTION To The Residents Of Bath, Montgomery and Nicholas Counties

Recently, some misinformation has been circulated in regards to the passage of HB 449 (Insurance Premium Tax) in this session of the Kentucky General Assembly.

- SOME FACTS ABOUT HB 449:
1) Limits County ability to tax city residents if they are already taxed.
2) Counties already have the ability to impose this tax under the "home rule" statute.
