Tourism plans open house

Nicholas County Tourism Inc. would like to announce an open house at the Old County Jail building on Truffa Schiefer Ave. in Maysville and Naomi took Dorothy home on Sunday evening and they dined at Cracker Barrel in Lexington. Money for the project has been made available from their building in 1861. Records indicate, however, that part of the building may have been built between 1820 and 1830.

The jail, one of the oldest buildings in Carlisle, was finished in 1861. Records indicate, however, that part of the building may have been built between 1820 and 1830. Nicholas County Tourism Inc. plans to restore the building to its original condition. The hope is to use the building as a community meeting center and have a visitor's center in the facility.

Fire department receives funds

On October 31, Nicholas County Fire Chief Mark Hughes was presented a check for $370 by Harley Dougherty, Unit Manager, Kentucky Division of Forestry, Morehead. The program hopes to identify needs and solutions to problems faced by rural communities in conducting a fire protection program.

Special consideration was given to present protection level, ability of the community to help itself, values protected, and past fire protection. Dougherty said the funds were distributed on the basis of need.

Hunters required to ask permission land. Perfectly understandable. Some Kentucky hunters are finding it difficult to obtain written permission from landowners even in cases where verbal permission is given first. In many of these cases, the landowner seems to have a general reluctance to sign anything.

What Jesus Taught By George A. Rogers

Some have thought that we know too much of an issue out of the Bible. This is because there has been a lot of talk about what Jesus taught. It is not that we know too much, but that we do not know enough. Jesus taught us to love God and our neighbor. He taught us to be kind and merciful. He taught us to be honest and to tell the truth. He taught us to be patient and to wait for God's will. He taught us to be faithful and to trust in God. He taught us to be generous and to share with those in need. He taught us to be humble and to serve others. He taught us to be pure and to avoid sin. He taught us to be joyful and to praise God. He taught us to be obedient and to follow God's commands. He taught us to be brave and to stand for what is right. He taught us to be forgiving and to love our enemies. He taught us to be selfless and to give of ourselves. He taught us to be true and to speak the truth. He taught us to be good and to do what is good. He taught us to be kind and to be gentle. He taught us to be patient and to wait for God's will. He taught us to be faithful and to trust in God. He taught us to be generous and to share with those in need. He taught us to be humble and to serve others. He taught us to be pure and to avoid sin. He taught us to be joyful and to praise God. He taught us to be obedient and to follow God's commands. He taught us to be brave and to stand for what is right. He taught us to be forgiving and to love our enemies. He taught us to be selfless and to give of ourselves. He taught us to be true and to speak the truth. He taught us to be good and to do what is good. He taught us to be kind and to be gentle.
