Boy Scouts participating in nationwide food drive

Boy Scout Troop #50, sponsored by the First Baptist Church of Carlisle, is participating in Scouting for Food, a Nationwide Good Turn to provide food for needy families.

On Saturday, November 17, the Troop distributed bags to every household in Carlisle. Those wishing to donate to this effort should place canned or dry food stuff in the bag and place it on their front porch on Saturday, November 24. The Troop will collect the food on that date.

Because of the danger of breakage, glass containers should not be used. Questions about Scouting For Food should be addressed to Scoutmaster Bill Guthrie at 289-5534.

reading of the minutes, a discussion was held on purchasing an appliance for the extension office. A committee was appointed and asked to report on this matter in December.

Various ideas were discussed for Christmas projects and members will decide next month.

Lisa Hamm presented the lesson on "Self Esteem". Positive self esteem, was defined as how you see and feel about yourself. Members were told, there are three ways to create a positive self esteem. They are calmness, intention and will power. These are the choices we make in our daily life.

Also members were told of positive self esteem building, making fresh starts, seek solitude, listen carefully and dream or hope.

Following the lesson, an auction was held to raise funds for club projects.

Four members and five guests were served delicious refreshments. The guests were Sarah Gilson, Mary Lawrence, Judy Dale, Saiver Alexander, Dorothy Birmingham.

The December meeting will be at the home of Brenda Lawrence.
