Mrs. Donald Harris

Mathes—Harris are wed, Sept. 8

Heather Ruth Mathes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Mathes of Carlisle and Donald Stedric Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Harris of Richmond, were united in marriage on September 8, 1990, in the Berea College Danforth Chapel in Berea.

The Reverend Alonzo Ballard of the Farristown Baptist Church in Berea officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The maid of honor was Miss Whitney Mathes of Carlisle, sister of the bride. The best man was Marvin Mitchell of Richmond. The bridemaids were Erin Mathes, sister of the bride, of Carlisle and Michelle Havens of Paris.

The groomsmen were Christopher Harris, brother of the groom, and Darryl Ballard, both of Richmond. The ring bearer was Tristan David Mathes, son of the bride.

The bride wore a gown created by her mother, of ivory satin with the bodice covered in beaded Battenburg lace and accentuated with a lace edged chapel train.

Her headpiece was a double panel of illusion tulle trimmed in lace and caught to a band of pearls and accented with a beaded spray of gardenias. She carried a cascade bouquet of rose clematis, gardenias, and greenery tied together with ivory ribbon and lace.

The maid of honor wore a tea-length gown of teal green satin designed with Chantilly lace on the bodice.

The bridesmaids wore teal green satin sheath dresses. All carried baskets of mixed flowers and baby's breath in colors of teal and rose.

The mother's of the bride and groom participated in the candlelighting ceremony at the beginning of the service.

Mrs. Mathes wore a rose silk two piece suit trimmed in lace and Mrs. Harris wore an ivory silk and lace sheath dress.

The reception was held at Baird Lounge in the Berea Colllege Alumni Building with Miss Shelia Robinson and Stephanie Gist of Berea College in attendance.

The bride is a graduate of Millersburg Military Institute and will receive her B.A. degree in English and Philosophy in May from Berea College.

Also she is the Editor and Chief of the Berea College Pinnacle. She will be attending the University of Cincinnati Graduate School in the fall, 1991, for her doctoral studies.

The groom is a graduate of Richmond Madison High School and attended Eastern Kentucky University and is employed by Gibson Greeting Cards, Inc.

After a short wedding trip, the couple is residing at Timberwood estates in Berea.

Rose Brady, left, Nicholas County Property Valuation Administrator, talks with Boogie Hall, far right, and Patty McClure during the open house for the Property Valuation Administration office. The office has moved from the second floor of the Nicholas County Courthouse to the basement. Brady said many people have complained about climbing the stairs to get to the office and the new office makes her more accessible to more people. She also said the new office is much more spacious and private.

Homemakers

Park Homemakers

The Park Homemakers met at the home of Eula Carter September 17, 1990 for their first meeting of the year. President Marie Crawford called the meeting to order. Helen Roberts gave the devotion. Six members answered the roll call telling something they remembered about their grandparents. Treasurer report was given by Etna Mae Alexander.

We filled out calendars for another year. Marie said the money was to be in by September 21 for the area meeting in Paris, Kentucky. Also we are to bake something for Court Days September 22 and 23. We are to make cookies for the Special Olympics October 27. Eula Carter gave the lesson on salads. She said customers are to keep salad bars clean, never to eat at salad bars and how the owners of salad bars can help keep them clean and sanitary. She served the apricot nectar and chicken salad refreshment. They were very delicious. Our next meeting will be October 8 at the home of Eva Grimes at 7:00 p.m. we are to reveal Secret Pals and draw names for another year. Pennies for friendship are due. Our meeting adjourned.

THE CHOPPING BLOCK

by Philomena Corradeno

Stuffed Pepper Grape Salad

2 cups California red or green seedless grapes, halved
2 cups canned corn niblets, drained
1 15½-oz. can red kidney beans, drained
½ cup chopped celery
Herbed Vinaigrette*
1 green pepper
1 yellow pepper
1 red pepper

Combine all ingredients except peppers; toss with vinaigrette (recipe follows). Marinate at least one hour. Cut peppers in half lengthwise; remove seeds and membrane. Fill each pepper with marinated grape mixture. Makes six servings.

 Herbed Vinaigrette: Combine two tablespoons white wine vinegar, one tablespoon each vegetable oil, lemon juice, chopped cilantro or parsley, and two teaspoons sugar; mix well. Makes about ½ cup.

Grape Caesar Salad

½ head Romaine lettuce
½ head iceberg lettuce
3 cups red or green seedless grapes, halved
½ cup crumbled imported Gorgonzola or grated Switzerland Swiss cheese
Parmesan Croutons
Honey Vinaigrette Salad Dressing
3 tablespoons grated Italian Parmesan cheese

Tear lettuce into pieces. Arrange lettuce, grapes, Gorgonzola cheese and Parmesan Croutons (recipe follows) in large salad bowl. Pour ½ to ¾ cup Honey Vinaigrette (recipe follows) over salad; sprinkle with Parmesan cheese. Toss lightly before serving. Makes six servings.

 Parmesan Croutons: Toss one cup small bread cubes with one tablespoon melted butter and one tablespoon grated Parmesan cheese in skillet. Heat over moderate heat until golden brown, stirring frequently.

* Honey Vinaigrette: Combine ½ cup red wine vinegar, ¼ cup honey, ¼ cup Italian olive oil, two tablespoons lemon juice, 1½ teaspoons dry mustard and salt and pepper to taste; mix thoroughly. Makes 1¼ cups. Cover and refrigerate leftover dressing.
