OWINGSVILLE — Bath County Bluejackets edged another close, outscoring...

played in a cold, clear late October evening, the game was marked by defense. Nicholas County, in their traveling white jerseys and blue sweaters, was led on defense by Shaun Russell and Chris Jones.

The Bluejackets rose to the occasion. Senior Randy Hayes burst through the Blue offense line. The hairy lineman and someone's father's sonnered the kick with his chest and the visiting Nicholas County liquid still had...

The game appeared headed for a pointless tie in regulation time on the last three minutes. After the interception, Nicholas County was unable to move the ball. Paired deep in their own territory, the Bluejackets were forced to punt out of their own end zone.

Standing on the goal line, sophomore punter Brian Hickman received a low snap and a fierce kick from the homecoming red team. The ball squirmed loose and rolled out of the end zone. A safety was the result and gave Bath County to cut lead with 1:10 remaining in the game.

play met with moderate success, the wildcat tried again. When happened on the next play was the play of the game for Nicholas County and probably the play of the year as well.

The Wildcat took control out of the backfield and ran into a low, hard Nicholas tackle three yards out the line of scrimmage. The runner was nipped up and he lurched forward, senior safety Jerome Farah unskied the ball out of his grip with an upward left handed swing, caught the ball in his right hand, tucked it in and handed for the end zone. No Wildcat could catch the quick senior as he sprinted 65 yards for the score.

With 1:45 remaining on the clock, the Blue-shirted visitors lined up for the crucial two-point conversion. Head Coach Greg Lecher sent with a pass play...

found Brian Hillander in the end zone and the score was tied.

The tie and the Nicholas County joy produced was short-lived. Bath County needed only 18 seconds to make the lead.
