Morehead darts way to win over KSU, 35-13

By Hank Bond
The Carlisle Mercury Staff
FRANKFORT — Moving and shaking the Morehead State offense found itself, while the Eagles defense continued to do a good job, as Morehead took its first win over the Kent State University Spartans, 35-13 over Kent State University Spartans, Saturday night in Frankfort.

After another unimpressive week for KSU, on a first and 10 from the right side of the field, Morehead kicked up seven yards. Swartz gained a first down with a four yard run that first point.

Junior Lady Jackets teams, both 3-0

Nicholas County's junior high girls basketball teams improved to 4-0 each, last week with wins over Georgetown and Jessamine County.

Megan Mearns
The eighth grade game, Nicholas County pulled away from a 12-10 halftime lead with a 23-24 change in the third quarter to take a 37-20 win.

Morehead travels

The Buffaloes traveled 208 to the half, but over the Nicholas County game in the second quarter, half 37-27.
