Homemakers

Headquarters Homemakers The Headquarters Homemakers met September 4, 1990 at the Nicholas County Library for their first meeting of the 1990-1991 calendar year.

Betsy Cleaver, Vice President called the meeting to order.

The minutes of the last meeting were read and approved. Hazel Moore gave the Treasurer report.

Fannie Metcalfe and Hazel Moore were hostess. Lesson for the day given by Lucille Feabek on salads. We had a total of sixteen different salads for the luncheon.

Calendars for the coming year were filled out and officers elected.

Court Days for Nicholas County will be September 22 and 23. Each member was encouraged to bring back items for the food sale.

A total of forty-four books have been read by our club members this summer.

Our next meeting will be October 2, 1990 at the Nicholas County Library with Lucille Feabek, Lois Allison and Betty Lynn Rankin as hostess.

East Union Homemakers The East Union Homemakers met Thursday night at the extension office for their monthly meeting. Lovella Stephenson was hostess and led devotion.

Roll call was answered by nine members, telling what they were doing on the various salads.

Dues for this year were collected and a contribution to the Ovarian Cancer Fund was made.

Monthly reports were taken. Sue Bell reported on the good time she had at cultural arts camp and the many crafts that were made there.

Our lesson Salad Savvy was led by Irlie Ruth Burden and Ann Smoot.

"They prepared salads that were served as refreshments. Our next meeting will be held at the home of Pearl Campbell."

The Moorefield Homemakers Club met Thursday, September 6, 1990 at the home of Mrs. Marjorie Wilson. President Elizabeth Ellington presided.

Following the reading of the minutes and roll call, the monthly newsletter was reviewed by Mrs. Ellington.

Club members were reminded to have their reservations in for the Area Meeting by September 21, 1990.
