

EARL COX ON KY SPORTS

By EARL COX
Sports Columnist

News item: The Kentucky Lane Ice Foundation, sponsor of the Kentucky Indiana All-Star game, will announce the names of "Mr. Basketball" and "Miss Basketball" at noon on April 13 at the Campbell House in Lexington.

Because me, but I believe all that was settled. Jerome Brown and Sherry Reed claimed the honors with their superior performance in the most balanced competition of all the "Sweet Sixteen" boys and girls tournaments. Brown led the yardline team to its second consecutive state championship at Lexington and then Reed worked an Laurel County won the title for the fifth time.

Officially, the selection committee will announce the winners during a meeting of The Association of Press Sports Editors' annual meeting. And here I could be a bit sticky. Despite the pleas of Larry Yagell, the sports editor's president, to make the voting public, the Lane selection committee refuses to do so. As an instead of Brown, who has signed with Tennessee, the "Mr. Basketball" title may go to someone who could sell more tickets, namely Fitchell's Chris Harrison, who signed with the University of Kentucky. Or they could be named Mr. Basketball.

Harrison has impressive credentials and he has an impressive future — if he will work to gain strength.

Reminder: If you want to see Harrison and the rest of UK's recruits as well as Brown and Maurice Morris from Fairdale and U of L's Agnes Keith LeFevre, you can on April 20 when the McDonald's Kentucky Derby Festival Classic is held at Freedom Hall. The other UK recruits are Amos Timberlake and Andre Boddick.

Jimmy Brown Update
And if you want to make a nice fellow feel better, you are invited to write or call Brown, known state-wide when he covered golf for The Courier-Journal. He is recovering from a Jimmy it covered from a

Speaking of Strength

Back Oliver, brought to UK by Rick Pilson to increase the strength of his Wildcats, plays a strength clinic open to coaches and players. Check with the UK basketball office about details. Never has Oliver been the resulting quickness been more evident in basketball.

What a Sendoff

A couple of weeks ago I told you about Ben Edeles, the one official who would work for both Ed Diddle and Paul McReary when their Western and Eastern teams squared off. Well, Ben passed away last week.

Ralph & Richie

When I need a pick-me-up, all I have to do is call Ralph Beard, who is just as enthusiastic now as he was when he was a three-time All-American guard at UK. He was really badly off at UK. He was really badly off at UK. He was really badly off at UK.

GENERAL NEWS

Blood drive set April 15

Spring
Every day, at least 200 pints of blood are needed by Contract Kentucky Blood Center for patients in 57-county area. Blood drives like the one sponsored by Nicholas County hospital help to fill those needs and assure that blood will be available when an emergency occurs.

Commodities to increase

Due to the availability of seasonal food items, Kentucky will receive almost twice the amount of federal surplus commodities during the next three months as compared to the last quarter.
