COMMUNITY

The Carlsle Mercury/James L. Hising Photo Mayor Frankie Hughes (seated) opens proclamation designating April 28 through May 5, 1991 as Soil and Water Stewardship Week. Standing is Edgar Allen Garrett, Chairman of the Nicholas County Soil Conservation District.

Many thanks are given for money tree donations

The Nicholas County Health Care Auxiliary wishes to express their sincere appreciation to all who contributed to the Money Trees located in Fountains and Pic Park April 5 and 6, 1990-91. A total of $290,000 was collected during the two day fund raiser. Since the equipment needed for the hospital and nursing home is quite expensive, it takes a lot of fund raising projects to raise adequate funds to purchase such equipment.

There are times when just a hot towel won't do it. When you have an ordinary everyday stain, you need a professional. Acrylics are the new standard in stain removal. New Services Offered at Johnson Mothers Health Care Cardiology Care Patients above: L. Monroe, T. Lee, HCP, Phyllis Mitchell, HCP, May Guy, HCP. Seated: Steven Hirsztberg, GRT, RRT. "Activities in the Cardpulmonary Care Services at JMHC are at an all time high this past winter," according to Steven Hirsztberg, Director of Cardpulmonary Care Services. "During this time of year, it can be a difficult time of the year for patients suffering from the flu and respiratory infections who have asthma, bronchitis and emphysema. Croup and pneumonia are also prevalent during this time of the year. The Cardpulmonary Care services at JMHC have all the available resources to diagnose and treat cardpulmonary diseases. The Cardpulmonary department previously known as the respiratory therapy department has added some additional services to assure that the best of care is available locally. These services include EKG's, EEG's, stress testing and pulse oximetry. These services, in conjunction with a very devoted staff, whose 31 cumulative years of experiences are a real and tangible asset to our community. For further information, please contact Martha Hatcher HCP at 289-7181 ext. 34.
