Josh Guthrie and Ricky McFarland work on the refurbished playground at the back of the Nicholas County Elementary School.
Throughout the old swing sets, monkey bars and merry-go-round at the playground will be soffer with the addition of much ground at the base of each piece of equipment.

Bluejackets.
Through Nicholas gained yardage on the ground, their advances were often cut short by a few families and inter-erceptions.
The Panthers last advance down field, aided by a 25-yard reception, seemed to announce another score. But the Bluejackets defense rallied and thgirted any other scoring drive.
The game brought out weakness as well. What I hope is that the team realize the amount of intensity and aggressiveness, as well as composure, they need to be competitive this year.
