AROUND CARLISLE

Matt Duncan's friend, Matt Cohorn, of Nicholas County, celebrated birthday number 5. A party was given by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Cohorn at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Dale. His grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cohorn and Mr. and Mrs. Buddy Guy.

In December, the Nicholas County Elementary School students, grades kindergarten through fourth, wrote letters to Santa in care of our local Dairy Queen. A winner from each grade was chosen to receive a $50 Savings Bond. Joyce Alexander, Manager of The Dairy Queen, shared the list of winners with us: Kindergarten - Jeremy Melene; 1st grade - Darrin Herrington; 2nd grade - Josh Ring; 3rd grade - Sky Ishmael; 4th grade Chris Mitchell.

The gifts were presented by the owners Paige and Dan Short, and Joyce Alexander.

When you stop in for a DQ, please take time to thank Joyce and her staff. They do a terrific kindness supporting our students and acknowledging their accomplishments.

Last week it was reported that the flags were coming to be distributed.

They are here.

Businesses have been given small flags, donated by the V.F. W., to display in their stores and offices. The large ones will line Main Street, displayed by the Rotary Club.

If you stand directly across from the south entrance of the courthouse, and look above the doorway, you will notice a new banner purchased by Nicholas County Judge Executive Reese Smoot and the Fiscal Court.

According to Kathy Howard of the Carlisle - Nicholas County Industrial Authority, banners will hang over the First National Bank and The Deposit Bank of Carlisle.

The City of Carlisle has purchased new flags for City Hall and the Police Department.

New flagholders are still coming. When they do, Kentucky Utilities has said they will help install them along Main Street.

SOCIAL SECURITY UPDATE

Q: My 42-year-old sister recently lost her husband. He tells me she isn't eligible for widow's benefits. Why?

A: Social Security pays widow's benefits to surviving spouses who are age 60 or older, 50 if disabled, or at any age who have a child of the worker under age 16 or disabled in her care. Unless your sister had in her care a child under 16 or disabled who is entitled to child's benefits, she would not be eligible for widow's benefits.

Q: From what I've heard, I think I might be eligible for SSI payments. But all the paperwork and forms I'd have to fill would be so confusing. Is there anybody who can help?

A: The people at Social Security will be glad to complete your application for monthly SSI payments. In fact, we always fill out the application form for you. A trained employee will explain the questions and guide you through the application process. And it doesn't really take that long to complete an application for SSI payments. If you would like to make sure everything goes smoothly when you apply, it's a good idea to call Social Security first.

But even if you don't, apply anyway. If you qualify, your payments cannot begin until the date you contact Social Security, so don't delay.

Social Security Update

Q: Since I turned 65, my monthly benefit checks are $28.60 less than before. I thought I would get more when I reach 65.

A: The reduction is your premium for medical insurance. When you reach 65, you are eligible for Medicare. The cost of Medicare hospital insurance is paid by Social Security, but there is a premium for Medicare medical insurance.

This year it is $28.60 which is deducted directly form your Social Security benefit amount. If you elected to retire early, at a reduced benefit rate, you do not get an automatic increase when you reach 65. Your benefits are paid at a reduced rate for as long as you receive them, to take into account the longer period of time you will be collecting benefits.

A birthday card shower is requested for James Lloyd Anderson who will be 16 years old on February 23. He is away at school and would be very surprised to hear from friends and relatives. His address is:
