by the illness of several starters. The Lady Jackets came out sluggish, and Berea immediately took advantage.

By slowing down the tempo of the game and picking up the defense, Berea held a 14-8 lead at the end of the first quarter.

The small's pace continued, and the Lady Jackets were not able to get a basket to fall on several occasions.

Nicholas County was able to keep pace in the quarter, matching Berea's nine second period points.

The Lady Jackets went into the break trailing 23-17.

Berea put the game away in the third quarter.

Nicholas County could not find an open shot, and the usually stingy defense allowed several easy Berea scores.

Nicholas County was outscored 21-12 in the quarter, and went into the final period trailing 44-29.

The Lady Jackets were able to find their shooting touch in the game's final period, outscoring Berea 16-12 in the final frame, but it was not enough.

Berea held on for the final 56-45 victory.

The Lady Jackets were led by Kim Denkins' 16 points. They Kirtynne also scored in double figures with 10 points.

Nicholas County closed out the regular season with a home game against Saint Patrick on Wednesday, February 28.
