February 20, 1986
Nicholas County voters approved legal sale of alcoholic beverages by an almost two to one margin in Saturday's wet-dry election.

Residents attending the $20.8 million contract for construction and repairs of the state's largest highway interchange in Kentucky bridges and high-crowns last Thursday morning heard the junior senator from Kentucky make unusual predictions: 1) Sharing funds will leverage your utility company. The month not only was cooler than normal, but heating deeded before March 15, when the 16-cents-a-pair tax on electric service expires.

A concerned group of citizens in Nicholas County have led in the on-going effort to attract an industry to this community. "BORN: Amanda Marie Moore, January 31, 1981; Nicholas Dean Himes, February 4, 1981; John Martin McVay, January 17, 1986; Amber Jean Landwehr, February 10, 1986.

DIED: Mrs. Barbara Gumm, February 1986. The Nicholas County Conservation District provides educational booklets for each fourth grade student at the elementary school.

The name of the booklet was entitled "Our Year Home," Martha Marsh, Commission Director.

Nominations are being accepted for the national conservation teacher of the year awards program by the Nicholas County Conservation District.

The awards program encourages development of creative learning experiences in natural resource issues for people people. Interested teachers can obtain additional information and nominations forms from the conservation district.

Clarification: Betty Barton voted against pay raises for city council members and the mayor at the last Carlsile City Council meeting.

Barbara Hopkins

On February 21st, at 7:00 p.m. in the Nicholas County High School cafeteria two of the above parents will be elected to serve on the School Based Decision Making Council. Their term will last for 1991-92 school year. Qualifying parents are invited to come and cast their ballot. Only those parents who have children enrolled in the high school in the fall, (currently grades 8 through 11) will be eligible to vote. Verification will be necessary.

* Twelfth graders graduate in the spring and will not be affected by council actions or mandates. Thus, their parents are not eligible to vote.
Nicholas County High School appreciates the interest and efforts of the community as we undertake this endeavor. This team decision making process is a milestone and should be a high interest area for all parents. Please come on Thursday, February 21st, and choose the best candidate to represent you and your children.
