Bobby Gill is deployed to Middle East War

Sgt. Bobby Gill, formerly of Mayeville, who has been stationed in Germany for the past two and a half years, has been deployed to the Persian Gulf for service in Operation Desert Shield.

Sgt. Gill's wife, the former Marcella Branahan, and her children, Steven, Christina and John, are still in Germany. The Army sergeant is the son of Mrs. Ruth Gill, of Market Street, and the late Edson Gill. His brother, Sgt. Arthur C. Gill, who has been in service for 20 years, is also stationed in Germany and another brother, Charles Kirby, resides in Mayeville. All three brothers have served in the Armed Forces.

Sgt. Gill graduated from Ft. Dix, N.J. in 1976. Before entering the service he was employed at the Blue Jay Car Wash in Aberdeen. His children are at an abbey near Paris. He works as a former marriage. Bobby W. Gill Jr., 15, and Stephanie Nicole, 8, reside in Clay City, Kentucky. His six children are the grandchildren of Mrs. Betty Branahan of Mayeville, and Mr. and Mrs. Powell, of Manchester.

Those wishing to write to Sgt. Gill in the Persian Gulf can address mail to him at the following address: Sgt. Bobby W. Gill, 40548-2718, AFN New York 09064, Operation Desert Shield.

Gladys Shroat of the Carlisle/Nicholas County Tourism office stopped by the office and said they had meeting last Monday evening. Old Capital Building for a celebration. More in next week's column.

There is not too much going on of a social nature, but many folks have stopped by to talk about our service men and women from Carlisle. "There is a new PRIDE in this country", as folk say.

GED classes begin
Have you ever tried to apply for a job and were told you couldn't fill out an application because you didn't have a high school diploma? You have been passed over for a promotion because you don't have your high school diploma? If so, you don't have to go through life meeting one frustration after another because of your lack of education.
