Flag pole dedicated at East Union

The picture above is the new land mark of the East Union Christian Church. It is the United States of amercia Flag which was donated by the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance, Chapter 611.

The flag was thought of By Miss Alpha Brierly, Somerset Road and delivered to Mr. Eugene Robinson who installed the flag pole in the concrete and placed the flag on it so it would be strong to fly and be admired by lots of people.

Miss Alpha Brierly dedicated the flag to all those who have fought in wars and will continue to fight. Most of the Robinson family belong to the Woodmen of the World Life Insurance. We are proud to watch Old Glory fly and we also thank Woodmen of the World Life Insurance for donating the flag.

Correction

The Rev. Roy C. Hunt, minister, Moorefield Methodist Church, welcomed a large crowd to the dedication of the new air conditioning and heating system at a program, Sunday June 2, in memory of Catherine F. Reid and J.S. Wilson.

Shown in a picture with a plaque last week was Mr. Ewell Bud Lyons, chairman of the board, not Rev. Hunt.

The Mercury regrets the error.

McNabb returns home

William "Eddie" McNabb, son of William Alvin and Glenda McNabb of Old Paris Road, returned June 23, 1991 from two week mission trips.

Will went with a group from Youth With A Mission, and worked with the Indians. The Y.W.A.M. group consisted of 20 people from across the U.S. and ranged from 12 to 50 years old.

Two other groups were there with conquest '91.

The first week was mostly training, since most of the three groups were teenagers. The week was great. We were told what to expect, and how to reach the Indians. God moved in a great way to help prepare us.

The second week the three groups split up and went to three different reservations. The other two groups went to Fort To Hon, and Turtle Mountain, and the Y.W.A.M. group went to Fort Berthold. Each group worked with a pastor from a local church.

In that week God opened doors that had never been opened before. Two of the groups even got inside the Tribal Building. These are strictly for the tribes.

The groups performed dramas, gave testimonies, and shared Christ with those who would come and watch. They performed at housing projects, swimming pools, etc. One group even got to perform during a carnival.

It was an incredible two weeks. Many hated to see it come to an end. The three groups turned in over 500 decision cards for the pastors to follow up on. The stories told by the people were incredible.

Some of them will be returning next years to reach more reservations. Will is hoping to return by September to help disciple those who made decisions and their families.

Will said ". The fields are definitely ready for the harvest."
