cil and the Nicholas County Board of Education approved her appointment on Monday, July 8 at a specially called meeting.

The council recommended Dotson to the board as a teacher at the Nicholas County High as a chemistry/science teacher.

A new motion was made in regard to the students paying to get into ballgames.

At the last meeting a motion was made that all students pay unless they are playing performing or keeping the stats that night.

The new motion stated students participating in sports programs may attend free of charge in their respective sport.

A motion was made to make sports cards available for all athletics and cheerleaders to be presented at the gate when entering a game.

This includes both high school and junior varsity school athletes and cheerleaders.

The grading scale which was discussed at the last meeting is being checked out with other school systems asking teachers their opinion. It was tabled until the next meeting on August 6. (See related story, this edition.)

A revision in the budget was to move $500 from miscellaneous to the library to meet last years budget.
