Regents take first step

MOREHEAD—The Morehead State University Board of Regents last Friday (March 1) took the first step to identify a successor to the current president, Dr. C. Nelson Greig, with the appointment of a presidential search committee.

Dr. Greig, the University's 11th president, announced last spring that he would step down when his contract expires next on June 30, 1992.

Appointed to the committee by William R. Seaton, board chairman, were the following regents: Wayne Martin who will serve as a temporary chairman, William Seifeld, Charles Wheeler, Dr. Alan Whaley, and Teresa Carter, Dr. Greig's successor.

Members of the committee include: James B. Pikeville and Alvin Myers of the faculty, Ted that the 1991 Agronomy Extension Program sign will be March 4 through April 26.

The committee will meet soon to discuss search procedures and improve water quality. The life of a CEP program is for 10 years. No production, Station said.

The board retained its current regents: Seaton, chair; Jerry F. Howell, Sr., vice chairman; Porter Bailey, treasurer; and Carol Johnson, secretary.

regents that preliminary estimates by the architect-engineer for the Lappin Hall renovation project had exceeded the 1990 General Assembly's appropriation of $5 million. As a result the University is looking at alternatives to the plan, including phased construction.

The board's next meeting is set for Friday, May 17, at 10:00 a.m. in the Board Room, 1000 University Center.
