Curtis couple to celebrate 50th anniversary, Mar. 23

Mr. and Mrs. Claude C. Curtis, 405 W. 2nd Street, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary with an open house form 2 - 4 p.m. Saturday, March 23 at Blue Licks Christian Church.

Claude and the former Catherine Fryman were married March 23, 1941 in Maysville by Brother Robert Von Thurn.

The open house will be hosted by the couple's children and their families: Cecil and Brenda Curtis, Cynthiana, and George and Ann Ragan, Hopkinsville.

They have three grandchildren, and one great-grandson.

All friends and relatives are invited.

LCPL. Roy W. Towles has been serving in the Gulf since December. He is with the 2nd Marine Division from Camp Lejuene , North Carolina.

A1986 graduate from Nicholas County High School, he is the son of Joyce and William Towles; grandson of Roy and Frances Berry and Eula Grimes; and the great-grandson of Mary Alice Berry.

Joyce said she had heard from Roy in mid-February when he was three miles from the border and moving. When she called the "800" number for the families of those on active duty in the gulf, the news was about 6-8 hours behind; but that 'his division has seen combat'.

Friends and relatives are encouraged to write him and show that support and prayers are with him.

Assistance is available to Military Families, and they may participate in more than one program as long as they meet relevant eligibility criteria. Further information may be obtained by contacting the offices listed below:

ABOUT CARLISLE

An excited Sara Curran was at the Nicholas County School Board meeting as she prepared her lessons for Elementary Education. She had to observe the board in action as part of an assignment. She was excited as she told us that Dwaine "is coming home."

He is still overseas; in great spirits, and is looking forward to getting back to the Kentucky around April 1. He could be home, in Carlisle, as soon as April 5.

Rhonda Bean received a tape from Tony, who in turn, sent it on to Mom and Dad, Sue and Ron Barker. After a little editing, the 8th grade class saw the tape.

Sherry Howard and Gladys Shrout said the Community Church Choir is getting ready for its Easter Cantata to be presented at the end of this month.

Vice — Wood are married in December 29 ceremony

Miss Dana Renee Vice, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allie C. Vice, Jr., and Mr. Jimmy Wood, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Neal Wood were united in marriage December 29, 1990 at 2:30 p.m. in the Carlisle Christian Church.

Reverend Mark S. Vice of New Point, Indiana officiated the ceremony.

Music was provided by: Greg Robinson, Daryl McFarland, Cindy Hopkins and Rhonda Fryman.

The alter was decorated with white, mauve and blue flowers, seven branch candelabras covered with greenery and accented with white satin ribbon, and a unity candle.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, Allie C. Vice, Jr., wore a Victorian white satin gown fashioned with: a high lace neckline with pearl dangles and sheer illusion, a deep V-back, fitted long sheer sleeves embroidered with lace and sequins, satin puffed shoulders strewn with pearl dangles and bows, a sweet-heart fitted bodice covered with lace, sequins and pearls, and a satin rosette bow in the back. Her gathered skirt ended in lace trim and extended into a mid-cathedral train, embellished with embroidered cut-outs, sequins, pearls and trimmed in lace.

She wore a V-front headpiece trimmed in sequins and pearl sprays, leaf sprigs and white flowers. It gathered in the back to form a pouf with a long, sheer, fingertip veil. She carried a cascading bouquet consisting of white, mauve, and blue roses, accented with sequins and pearl sprays. Mauve and white lace streamers completed the bouquet.

Miss Ronda Smart served as matron of honor. She wore a floor length mauve gown accented with a mauve lace bodice, poufed short sleeves, and a bow in the back. She carried a white lace fan accented with mauve carnations, white tiger lilies and blue roses with a mauve bow and streamers.

Mrs. Carma McFarland and Mrs. Kim White served as bridesmaids. Their dresses and bouquets were identical to the matron of honor. Miss Becky Evans served as the flower girl. She wore a printed dress, with blue, gray and mauve flowers, trimmed in heart shaped white lace, with a pink bow around the waist. She carried a white wicker basket with a mauve bow and streamers.

The groom wore a black cutaway tuxedo with a white shirt, black cummerbund and black bow tie. He also wore a white rose boutonniere.

Darrin Green served as the best man. He wore a black cutaway tuxedo, white shirt and metallic blue cummerbund and bow-tie, and a white carnation boutonniere.

Everett Smith and Dennis Jackson served as the groomsmen and ushers. Clinton Evans served as the ring bearer. They all wore tuxedos identical to the best man.

Mrs. Sheila Fryman presided over the guest register.

The reception was held in the Fellowship Hall of the Carlisle Christian Church. The heart shaped, tiered white wedding cake was decorated with mauve and blue roses and greenery. Reception hostesses were: Marilyn Becraft, KarenRobinson and Sheila Fryman.

Dana is a graduate of the Nicholas County High School and is presently attending the University of Kentucky College of Nursing. Jimmy is a graduate of the Nicholas County High School and Eastern Kentucky University. He is presently employed with the Postal Service in Richmond.

After a honeymoon in Gatlinburg, TN, the couple is residing in Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Wood
