Pinewood Derby draws 21 entries; three claim awards. Special to The Carlisle Mercury CARLISLE — The Carlisle Cub Scouts of Pack 50 held a Pinewood Derby, March 18 at the Carlisle Christian Church.

There were 21 cars entered in the race. The Pinewood Derby cars are distributed to the Cub Scouts as a kit. The boys then carve, cut, sand, and paint to make their own.

The design they have chosen, that they may use as a marketing slogan for me," said Randolph.

Once the cars are weighed, measured and inspected according to official race guidelines, the races can begin.

There was a lot of excitement in the boys and spectators as well, as many times the races were very close.

Thanks have been expressed to the judges, Robert Hood with the local Boy Scout Troop, Johnny Caswell, and Kevin Thomas the race was a success with the award winners.

First place went to Aaron Snapp, second place to Ryan Hunter and third place to Parker Moyer.

"Best detail" was given to Rodney Willoughby and most unusual car submitted was owned by Duane McCall.

The Derby also allowed four Peewee Racers to enjoy racing. They were Kyle Harmon, Coty McCall, Hunter, and Aaron Moyer.

Every participant in the race was given a ribbon, a certificate, a pencil and a magnetic screwdriver, which were donated.

The winners were presented a Wooden trophy for each place. These trophies were made and donated by Roy Myner.
