Jackets' diamondmen open season, March 25

By William Million
Of The Carlisle Mercury Staff

CARLISLE — Coach Billy Anderson and his Bluejackets will open the 1991 baseball season on March 25 and try to carry on the winning tradition at NCHS.

Coach Anderson, in his 23rd season at Nicholas County, looks to improve on last season's 17-13 mark.

In 22 seasons under Anderson, the Bluejackets have posted only three losing efforts. Twelve of those years the Jackets have been either district champions or district runners-up.

This season could be one of the best ever for the Jackets.

Anderson says the strength of the 1991 squad will be experience.

"We have almost everyone returning from last year, and I think we can have a good season this year.

Last year I thought we were going to win 20 games. We had 17 wins with six games left to play, but injuries finally caught up to us."

The Bluejackets dumped the last six games of the season to prevent Nichols from reaching the 20 win mark, a first Anderson had hoped to reach.

With experienced players at key positions returning, the Jackets look poised to break the plateau.

The infield is the Jackets' strength. Travis Sims, first base, Daniel Brown, second, Brad Brierly, shortstop, and third baseman Jarrod Wills give Nicholas County one of the best defensive infields in the region.

Anderson says the teams biggest weakness is in the outfield. Kevin Morris, the slick fielding center fielder, is assured a spot, but questions in the outfield remain for the Bluejackets.

"We really need to have a couple of outfielders come on strong and fill these holes," Anderson said.

Brown, with an 8-3 record last season, is the ace of the starting pitchers.

Coach Bill Anderson

Sims, David Sibert, and Mike Cain will round out a solid rotation.

Mike Johnson carries the catching duties.

The Jackets are one of the highest scoring teams in the region, but lack a power hitter.

All Bluejackets carry respectable batting averages, and the team's experience makes up for the lack of power or base running speed.

"This is a smart team. They are not going to beat you with the home run, but they always find a way to stay with you.

"They play really hard. That wins us a lot of ball games." Anderson said.

Nicholas, a member of the 37th district, will have its hands full this year.

Powerhouse Harrison County, the pre-season district favorite, will make it tough on the Jackets to advance to regional play.

The Bourbon County Colonels and Paris Greyhounds also sport respectable clubs.

Millersburg Military Institute will not field a team this season.

Coach Anderson, who has modestly won over 350 games in his high school career, hopes to keep the Jackets close to the top throughout the season.

With everybody returning from last season's team, the Jackets may be on the verge of their best season yet.

The Maysville Bulldogs provide the competition when they come to Carlisle for the season opener March 25 at 4:30 p.m.
