HOMEMAKERS' NOTES

The Moorefield Homemakers
The Moorefield Homemakers met March 7 at the home of Mrs. Lois Hamm of Carlisle.

The nominating committee was appointed and asked to give a report in April. Those appointed to the committee are Marjorie Wilson, Lucille Clark and Wanda Mathis.

Members were asked to consider ideas on crafts for the Cultural Arts Camp to be held at Abert, Kentucky in September.

The lesson entitled "Earthquake Preparedness" was given by Jane Moskan. An earthquake is expected to occur along the new Madrid Fault within the next fifty years. This is expected to create a disaster of which we must be prepared. This lesson told us what to expect from the earthquakes and the emergency supplies that would be needed to survive for a period of 72 hours.

Following the lesson, a game was enjoyed by its members. Delicious refreshments were served and the meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Wanda Mathis.

Publicity, Jane Moskan
