Bill Guthrie and Charles Canupp received the Scoutmaster Award of Merit on April 15. This award is obtained from the National Eagle Scout Association through the local troop committee. There are several requirements that must be met to receive this award such as development of boy leadership, positive relations and image with the boys and community, as well as a working knowledge of boy scout policy through hours of required training. Guthrie and Canupp were surprised by the award at a Court of Honor where approximately 30 guests were present.
