National Hospital Week
CARLISLE — A CPR recertification class sponsored by Nicholas County Hospital and Wedco Health District will be held Friday, May 17 at 8 a.m. in the basement of Nicholas County Library. Anyone who needs to be recertified may contact Peggy Seithers, 289-7234, or Ginger Wagner, 254-5750, to register for the class. The only charge is $1.00 to cover the cost of a new card.

CARLISLE — As a kickoff for the Memorial Day Holiday, a Buckle Up For Safety Program, sponsored by Nicholas County Hospital and Wedco Health District will be held at Nicholas County Health Department, May 22 at 1 p.m. The program will be repeated May 24 at 1 p.m. at the Nicholas County Hospital Conference Room. A Kentucky State Trooper will be on hand with a film, lecture and demonstration. He will show how 30 seconds can save your life and the life of your child. A drawing will be held for a free infant's safety seat. For more information call Peggy Seithers, 289-7234.

Special to The Mercury
MT. OLIVET — Nicholas County Hospital combined forces with Robertson County Cooperative Extension Services in sponsoring a Health Fair for Robertson County, May 11. Robertson County Health Department, Robertson

County Life Squad, Robertson County Homemakers and Downing High FFA girls also assisted in the event.
Nicholas County Hospital Administrator Dan Miller and Peggy Seithers, Community Education Nurse and WIC Coordinator for Wedco Health Department, Mary Kay, Judy Hall, Wendy Price, Kay Hall and Casey Seithers helped carry out this event.

Many other departments from the hospital and nursing home were represented by posters or coupons offering a discount or free service from the department.
Grogan's Health Care supplied an Acne - Check Machine.

Nearly 100 people turned out for the day long event. Several door prizes were given away. Dianne Robinson of Mt. Olivet won a free mammogram from NCHospital. W.G. Poyner of Mt. Olivet won a free doctor's visit and exam.

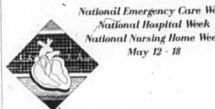

The day was a tremendous success, and a health fair is being planned for Nicholas County, sometime in July.
