Kentucky Local Calling Zones

Nicholas County Today offers a variety of lifestyles for its residents. Following the bend of the Licking River Valley, Nicholas County's terrain follows a lay-of-the-land from beautiful hillsides to a colorful, river valley. It is not uncommon to see wildlife at nearly every turn of a country road from sailing quail to the bounding bobcat of a young deer. The lakes, ponds, and creeks of Nicholas County abound with fish of many types including Bluegill, Bass, Crappie and Catfish. Nicholas County is interconnected with surrounding counties by Kentucky Routes 32 and 36, and U.S. 68. Nicholas County hosts three industrial operations and is served by one countywide school system. Nicholas County Hospital and Johnson-Mathers Health Care offer primary and long-term care for residents. Nicholas County is certainly a great place to live with a variety of services and lifestyles.
