Moorefield United Methodist Women

The Moorefield United Methodist Women met at the home of Ruth Gump, president, on November 14, 1991, at 7:30 p.m. Ten members and a guest, Marie Crawford, she is the District Global Concerns chairperson, and Marsha Haney, who joined our unit were present. The group also was glad to welcome back Mrs. Pauline Clark.

After the business session, Karen Smith was program leader. "Even Jesus Was A Child" was the title.

Following an interesting program of readings, songs and poems pertaining to children, we collected the world thank offerings, which go as undesignated gifts to the women's division for use in the U.S. and the world.

We are planning to send a quilt to a child at the Methodist Orphan Home of Kentucky, and bring tissues for Nicholas County Nursing Home patients next month.

VFW participate in Veterans Day

VFW Post 680 and Ladies Auxiliary participated November 11 (Veterans Day) by playing four wreaths at Camp Nelson National Cemetery.

Mary Walker placed the red wreath. Anna Smith (past President of Ladies Auxiliary) placed the white wreath. Louise Honaker placed the blue wreath. Max Reynolds (past Youth District President) placed the Evergreen.

The next speaker was Lieutenant Colonel Larry Aronst, Director, Division of Veterans Affairs, Commonwealth of Kentucky.

His message was very inspiring concerning what Veterans Day meant.

Invocation was given by Pastor James Harrison, N-leader. "Even Jesus Was A Child" was the title.

Eleanor Branel had the devotional reading Psalm 107, and a reading entitled "Thanksgiving Blessing," followed by "The Lord's Prayer." Eleanor also read minutes of the last meeting.

A note of thanks was read from Phyllis Brady for the plaster she received for the passing of her father.

Mrs. Margie made announcements. Food reports were made in December. Refreshments were served to eight members and meeting was adjourned. The Christmas meeting will be held at the home of Brenda Lawmaker.

East Union Homemakers
The East Union Homemakers met Thursday night at the East Union Church. Our meeting started with The Lord's Prayer, followed by Pearl Campbell, Lorella Stephenson gave the devotional. A supper was served and enjoyed by the 16 people that attended.

Our business meeting was called to order. Roll call was answered by "What Does Thanksgiving Mean To You." A report on the council meeting was made. Our club donated money to purchase two trays for the Nursing Home.

Monthly reports were taken. Our lesson on "Sparking Up Relationships" was given by Annita Damper. Our December meeting will be held at the home of Sue Bell. There will be a gift exchange.

Moorefield Homemakers
The Moorefield Homemakers club met Thursday, November 7, at the home of Mrs. Lucille Clark. Elizabeth Ellington, President, presided over the business session. Members were reminded of the hospital luncheon to be held at Moorefield on November 16. All were encouraged to attend. Mrs. Ellington gave a report on the "Quiz Show" held earlier at the depot. Many quilts were on display and a variety of patterns were exhibited.

"Members were reminded to donate seats for "Bundt" Kentucky".

There is a need of our community for patients to use in the local Nursing Home. The trays will be used primarily for dining. The Moorefield club will purchase one tray. Alvin Curtis gave a report on the recent cultural arts visit to Northern Kentucky. Many points of interest were visited and enjoyed.

Marjorie Wilson gave a mini-lesson "Know Your Molds." Various types of molds were discussed and how we may prevent their growth in our homes.
