Members of the 1991 Football Homecoming Court are pictured from left to right: Anna Whelan, Gretchen McKee, Kristi Barton, Janelle Stent, and Crystal Hurt will represent the senior class and one young lady will be crowned Friday night by last year's queen Kami Turpin. Back row: Laura Tabor is junior attendant, Elizabeth Schandring is sophomore attendant, and Candace Gilbert is the freshman attendant.

Nicholas County High School Band traveled to Mason County for a band competition. In Nicholas County's class Hazard was the overall winner. Lytle Memorial High School was second and Grant County finished third.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Editor: I don't know who is responsible for the care along the highways in the summer, but just want to tell them it has looked nice this summer season. Sincerely, Emogene Clinkenbender, Carlisle, Kentucky

MERCURY MEMORIES

5 Years Ago

Thursday, October 9, 1986 About 225 people, some lining the back walls of the upstairs courtroom at the Nicholas County Courthouse, learned Thursday night from Senator Ed Ford that Gov. Martha Layne Collins is trying to arrange an immediate meeting with Donna Wolf Steigerwald, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Jockey International in an effort to "resolve whatever problems exist for Jockey and the state of Kentucky."

A rare and important early map of the Commonwealth of Kentucky featuring a different shaped Nicholas County will be unveiled Sunday at 2:30 p.m. at the Depot in Carlisle. Magistrates voted to accept the bid of Construction Machinery Corporation of Louisville for a used asphalt paver for the county road department.

20 Years Ago Thursday, October 7, 1971 Dr. W.E. Kingsolver has been certified in medicine's newest specialty - Family Practice at the American Board of Family Practice announced recently.

10 Years Ago

Thursday, October 8, 1981 A Paris manufacturing plant has become the focal point for a partnership between commercial and industrial authority strategy would unravel. It could be too great setback for Nicholas County and Carlisle after all we have just started to establish. Letter said.

Industrial authority is in question

By Josh Shepherd
The fate of the Nicholas County Industrial Authority and Carlisle Chamber of Commerce was placed in jeopardy following the possible resignation of Kathy Howard as coordinator of the Carlisle Chamber of Commerce and Nicholas County Industrial Authority executive secretary.
