Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Steven Ball

Robinson and Ball wed

Mrs. Melanie Faith Robinson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Robinson and Arnold Steven Ball, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Ball were united in marriage at the Carlisle Christian Church on August 31, 1991 by Rev. Tony Smith.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown fashioned from white bridal satin. She wore a fitted basque styled waistline. The bodice was fitted and treated with Venice and allover lace, tiny seed pearls and iridescent sequins. An open keyhole neckline was featured in front and back necklines. Strands of pearls graduated in different lengths, trimmed the edge of the open keyhole hem. The sleeves were gathered softly at the shoulders and tapered to a point over the hand. The sleeves were treated with medallions of lace trim. The skirt was styled waist and fell into a cathedral length train. Lace edged the entire bottom of gown and lace inserts trimmed the skirt near the hemline. Her veil of illusion was mid-waist length gathered at the crown with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. Her bridal bouquet was lavender, rose, pink miniature carnations, lilies and baby's breath.

The maid of honor, Mrs. Sarah Curran, was a floor length gown of purple satin, tucked waistline and full sleeves softly gathered. The bridesmaids, Mrs. Carla Robinson, sister of the bride, Miss Venetia Gibbs, Cousin of the bride, and Miss Tonia Irwin, were an identical purple gown, she carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations, yellow lilies, baby's breath with purple ribbons.

The groom wore a black tux with tails. Best man, Darren Robinson, brother of the bride, and groomsmen, Phillip Childron, Wendell Fryman, and Todd Reid wore identical tuxes. Usher, David Heskens, wore an identical tux.

Miss Amber Pontius, cousin of the groom, wore a white knee length dress of satin and lace. Mister Dustin Robinson, nephew of the bride, wore a black tux with tails. Reading at the guest book was Mrs. Cindy McCarthy. Serving at the reception was Mrs. Phyllis Cleaver, Miss Tonia Gray, Mrs. Sarah Fayer, Mrs. Christa Shirley, Mrs. Patricia Massey and Miss Rhonda Fryman.

After a wedding trip to the Smoke Mountain, the couple is residing at 418 Head-quarters Road.
