Alison and Scott Rayburn

Knapke weds Rayburn

Alison Rae Knapke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Knapke of Carlisle and Scott Rayburn, son of Barbara Rayburn of Fort Thomas, were united in marriage on August 10, 1991 at St. Peter Church in Lexington.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin gown with long sleeves and a sweetheart neckline. The basque bodice was jeweled in pearls and sequins. The cathedral length train was covered in a jeweled lace motif. Her headpiece was a crescent covered in jeweled alencon lace with a fingertip length veil. The bridal bouquet was a cascade of white roses and white calla lillies accented with freesia and ivy.

Mary Beth Hunt, sister of the bride, was Matron of honor. Her dress was of midnight blue irredescent taffeta. The sweetheart neckline and bodice was covered in black lace. She carried an arm bouquet of long stemmed red roses and white calla lillies.

Bridesmaids were Jill Irvin, Connitha Clinkenbeard, and Melissa Rayburn, sister of the broom. The flower girl was Crystal Early. Their dresses and bouquets were identical to the honor attendant.

Larry Rayburn served his son as best man. The groomsmen were Brian Little, cousin of the groom, Pat Porter, and Chris Knapke, brother of the bride. Ushers were Rick Hunt and Pat Knapke, brother-in-law and brother of the bride.

Rev. Joseph Saulins, former pastor of The Shrine of Our Lady, Carlisle, officiated at the double ring ceremony. Michelle Knapke, sister of the bride, was soloist and Virginia Lee Coatney was organist. Readings were done by Kris Koinig and Elizabeth Korona.

The reception was held at the Lansdowne Club. Assisting at the reception were Diana Wells, Betty Hester, and Sharon Hatton. Donna and Rebecca Conley served at the guest books.

Mrs. Rayburn is a graduate of Nicholas County High School and is attending the University of Kentucky. Mr. Rayburn is a graduate of Berkner High School in Richardson, Texas. He was a May graduate of the University of Kentucky, and is employed by Ferguson Enterprises, Lexington.

After a wedding trip to Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, the couple is residing in Lexington.

Wagoner to celebrate 45th

Sam and Jewell (Ritchie) Wagoner will celebrate their 45th wedding anniversary with a reception on Sunday, September 22 from 2 to 4 p.m. at the Herrington United Methodist Church, on the Jackstown Road in Bourbon County.

The Wagoner's were married n the Paris Methodist Parsonage by the late Rev. I.S. Pineur, who was pastor there at that time. They were married on Wednesday, September 25, 1946. Their only attendants were her sister, Mrs. Helen R. Pennington and his half-brother, Tellie Young Henry. Rev. Earl Pennington (Helen's husband) was also present.
