MSU to hold open house

Morehead State University will assist prospective students in some pre-college planning when the Office of Admissions hosts an "Open House" on Saturday, April 4.

The three-hour session is designed to introduce students and their parents to the University and answer questions they may have about programs of study, financial aid and social life, according to Michelle Richmond, admissions counselor.

The program will begin with registration at 9 a.m. on the third floor lobby of the Adron Doran University Center. Displays from the University's programs will be available for viewing.
