Bat Jackets take two in Danville Tournament

DANVILLE — The Nicholas County Baseball team opened its season against Boyle County in the Danville Tournament in winning effort of 8-2 on Monday afternoon.

The Bluejackets' Brad Brierly took a base off an error, Kevin Morris singled, Daniel Brown doubled and knocked home Brierly and Morris.

Brown scored off an error and took a 3-0 lead after one.

Nicholas County scored three runs in the second inning to take a 6-0.

Bradley Trussell took a base off an error, Jason George walked, Brown drove home Trussell on a base hit, Travis Sims picked up a RBI off a base hit, and Jarrod Wills doubled and knocked home a run.

In the sixth inning Brian Ockerman opened with a walk, Morris doubled, Sims singled and drove home both players.

Boyle County scored two runs in the sixth inning, had six hits for the game and three errors.

Nicholas scored eight runs, eight hits, and no errors.

The Bluejackets pitching came from Brown for four innings, Israel Stacy pitched for the fifth and sixth inning and Wills finished the seventh inning.

In the second game Nicholas defeated Lincoln County 10-2.

Brierly doubled and Morris doubled to drive in Brierly.

Lincoln scored two runs in second inning to take a 2-1 lead.

Nicholas drove home seven runs in the third to take commanding 8-1 lead.

In the fourth inning Wills and Ockerman hit back to back home runs with no one on base.

Nicholas scored 10 runs off nine hits and Lincoln's two runs came off four hits.

Brierly and Morris had three hits apiece in the second game.

Coach Billy Anderson said, "I felt our play was great since this was the first time this year we had taken the infield.

"All we had done this season was batting practice and using the batting cage.

"Boyle County has played four games and Lincoln had played two.

"Our pitching was pretty good with only one error in two games.

"This team is made up of mostly seniors and they did play last year.

"I put Trussell in as catcher and moved the outfield around the pitching of that game."

Nicholas will play Lexington Dunbar on Wednesday at 11:30 a.m. and Corbin at 2 p.m.

On Thursday Nicholas will play Montgomery County at noon and if the Bluejackets win the division they will play at 2 p.m.
