SALTWELL NEWS

By Mrs. FRED HOLLAR

Mr. Herbie Jones and Amanda of Olive Hill and Mr. and Mrs. Mark Devaney, Ashland, spent a day or two last week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy and the Davany's accompanied their son, Danny Lee home after a week's visit here.

Christy Kimmons of Blue Licks spent Tuesday night with Amanda Gaunce.

Martha and Daley Kennedy spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kennedy of Lexington. They were celebrating their 45th wedding anniversary.

H.A. Gaunce entered Good Samaritan Hospital on Wednesday when he underwent knee surgery. He remains a patient there at this writing and has had several visitors during his stay.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cain Sr., Cynthia, spent Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Haller.

J.B. and Hampton Gaunce of Bryan Station Road visited Mrs. Gladys Renney on Thursday. Jason Kenney of Covington, student at University of Kentucky, Lexington spent Wednesday night and Thursday with his grandmother, Mrs. Renney. He also visited Mrs. Fred Haller enroute back to school.

Mrs. Kathy Patrick and Ricky Carpenter of Cross City, Florida, visited Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy on this past Sunday and accompanied their father Mr. Richard Carpenter home with them for several months visit. He had previously made his home with his sister, Mrs. McCoy the past two years.

Our community extends sympathy to the family of Mr. Homer Withrow who passed away Friday after a lengthy illness. Mr. Withrow and family had lived in this community several years ago and had many friends and relatives who regret his passing.

Mr. and Mrs. Babby Brady and Raymond McKinley attended a field day at the Tony Herrington Farm on Old Lair Pike, Harrison County on Saturday. He showed the process of water bed plants. Lunch was served. Mrs. Babby Brady also visited Mr. and Mrs. David Rigg and son of Old Lair Pike.

Very nice crowd attended the supper at Rose Hill Church on Sunday night honoring their former pastor of Saltwell and Rose Hill Churches, Rev. and Mrs. Jonathan Smith, Andrew, and their new baby son, Luke. Following the meal, some music and singing by the Gospel Grandstand, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. June Florence and Mr. and Mrs. Gary Tischer of Paris. It was enjoyed by all.

Several from Headquarters Church and Carlisle attended the Easter Program "Who Will Crown Him King of Kings" at Saltwell Christian Church on Sunday evening. The church was filled and balcony and a very impressive program was given by a large number of participants.

Mrs. Diane Smith of Louisville spent the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Donald Stone, Carlisle. Debbie Hollar also visited them on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Nyri Stacy and Mrs. Phyllis Price, entertained with a lovely supper on Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joan Stacy for the birthday of Mrs. Nell Gaunce. Others attending were Bobby Price, Ricky Price and sons, Chad and Kyle, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmie Price, Bobby, Bradley, and Brandon, and Jorin Nell Stacy. Everyone enjoyed the good meal and time of fellowship together.

Friends and relatives here were very sorry to learn of the sudden death of Strathair Gaunce who passed away in his sleep on April 2 at his home in Fairfield, Ohio. He was born and spent his earlier years in this community and will be missed by all who knew him.

We also extend sympathy to the family of Jimmie Boone and family of Mr. and Mrs. Willis in the loss of their daughter and granddaughter this week in Tennessee, and to her father Jimmie Gaunce who lives in Tennessee.

Family Resouce Fair to be held April 17

Nicholas County's Family and Youth Center is sponsoring a Resource Fair in the N.C.E.S. gym Friday, April 17 from 8:30 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. The public is invited. There is no admission charge.

Children may have their faces painted, help paint a mural, create a play dough sculpture, or get a balloon to take along as they leave. Youth and adults will find booths and displays from businesses, organizations, and services offering information, brochures, and samples.

After registering for fall Head Start and kindergarten classes students and parents are invited to visit the fair.

"We've tried to plan a fair that will be both fun and informative," said Center Director, Charles Canupp. "There are many businesses, organizations, services, and activities in Nicholas County. We're trying to make it easier for people to find out about them."

Those who attended were her parents, Timmy and Kathy Livingood. Her aunts and uncles were Carol Vice, Greg, and Judy McHabb. Wanda and Elise Swartz.
