Family and Youth Center's Sunshine Club to offer after school care for students 3-12

Nicholas County's Family and Youth Center's Sunshine Club will offer after school care for students ages 3-12. The club opens when school dismisses and presently closes at 5 p.m. "If there is enough demand, we will stay open until 6 p.m.," said Center director Charles Canupp. The center is a state licensed Type I day care provider.

The staff provides a professionally supervised program. After an after school snack, club members may choose to play a game, play with friends, enjoy a hobby, rest, or if they insist - study. Special activities are offered from time to time also.

Computers and programs are also available for students to use. The computer library contains preschool, primary grades, middle school, high school, and adults level programs. Included are games with a purpose, math and language drills, independent study programs, work processing programs, references which provide information on a variety of topics, and miscellaneous programs. Some programs may be checked out like a library book.

To enroll students in the Sunshine Club call Nicholas County's Family and Youth Center at 289-3702. The Sunshine Club accepts students with special needs and is an equal opportunity employer.
