Jerome Hamry, with grandson Travis Angeli, and Harvey Linville, second from right, of the Disabled American Veterans, Chapter 12, Paris, with member, Sheriff Charles Ring, present Elymlyn Jones with a new microwave oven for the Nicholas County Senior Citizens Center. The D.A.V. has offered donations to the senior citizens center before. Two years ago they presented them with a television for the center.

Lady Jackets edges past Mason County 47-36

A very physical team and a big up against Clay. Defense was good, but our offense was not as good as we would have liked to be.
