

Letters to Santa

Dear Santa, I've tried to be a good girl this year, but sometimes it's hard. For Christmas I wish you would bring me a baby doll, a Care Bear, a new dress and any other surprises you think I might like. Love, P.S. Don't forget about my little brother Aaron.

Dear Santa, I'm only six weeks old, but Mommy and Daddy think I'm a very good boy. I would like some surprises for Christmas and maybe a new pacifier. I'll keep trying to be a good boy.

Dear Santa, Mom and Dad say I've been a good boy this year. I know I really tried hard. So for Christmas I would like some GI Joe men, a cowboy outfit, a riding lawnmower, a Batman doll, and any other surprises you would like me to have.

Dear Santa, Please don't forget my little brother Aaron, he's been a good boy so far. We'll leave you a snack under the tree! I love you, Santa.

Dear Santa, My name is Tyler Earn Garrett. I am 22 months old and my mommy is writing this letter for me. For Christmas I would like a Little Tikes Cozy Car to ride in and a small one for playing with on the floor, the Little Tikes family, some clothes and a play clock, a music box, and some other surprises that you think I might like. Especially, don't forget my training pants so Mommy can get me potty trained.

Dear Santa, Don't forget my brothers, Chris II, and Jeremy B. Bring them lots of surprises because they are pretty good boys. Don't forget Jeremy's cassette tapes and Chris's Nintendo game. I will leave you some presents under the tree.

Dear Santa, My name is Leah Hughes. You know my Daddy. He's the Fire Chief who helps you deliver toys on Christmas Eve in his fire truck. I've tried to be a good girl this year, but sometimes it's hard to do. I would like for you to bring me a doll baby, candy, and a balloon. Don't forget my half-brothers, Kyle and Jeremy, and all my friends at Day Care.
