SALTWELL NEWS

By Mrs. Fred Hollar

Jackie Wiles, Amy Campbell, Tammy Hollar, and Gary Kirby enjoyed a party on Tuesday night for Mrs. Amanda Guance's 10th birthday given by Mr. and Mrs. H.A. Guance at their home.

Bob Kenney of Covington spent Saturday with Mrs. Gladys Kenney.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady took ice cream and cake, etc. to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Whitson, Cynthia on Smith at the 80th birthday of Gayle Brady on February 11.

Mr. Phyllis Brady and Mrs. Frank McCoy, Sr. were at Mothers-Guance Chapel on Thursday afternoon conducted by Rev. Steve Smith, and burial in Carlisle Cemetery.

Miss Debbie Peck, University of Kentucky student, Lexington spent the weekend with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Donnie Peck, and David.

Allen Rule, who has been a patient at Harrison Memorial Hospital the past several days returned home Saturday morning.

Herbie Jones and daughter Amanda of Olive Hill spent Saturday night and Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy. Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Mattox were also Sunday dinner guests the occasion being his birthday and Mrs. Mattox's birthday on Tuesday. Also Sandy Wolf and Dick Carpenter were visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Whitson, Wills Faye Florence and son John, and Jesse Barnett visited Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hollar on Thursday evening.

Our community extends sympathy to the families of Mrs. Beanie Price who passed away Thursday evening at Nicholas County Hospital after an extended illness. Mrs. Price was a lovely person and will be missed by all who knew her. Also Leonard Wilcoxson who passed away the past week.

Danny Lee Dewany of Ashland spent several days the past week with Mr. and Mrs. Frank McCoy and family. Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dewany also of Ashland spent the day on Wednesday and accompanied their son home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bobby Brady visited Mr. and Mrs. Carl Whitson and his baby daughter, Carlene Deana, in Paris on Saturday night.

Garland "Abe" Earlywine fell near the doorway of his home in Carlisle on Friday and fractured a hip. He entered Nicholas County Hospital but was moved by ambulance to Veterans Hospital in Lexington.

Mrs. Verena Earlywine remains a patient at Humana Hospital in Lexington where she has been the past two weeks. She is slowly improving.

Mrs. Phyllis Brady and Mr. and Mrs. Boone Clark attended a birthday party for Mr. R.D. Clark's 93rd birthday at Edgemont home on Tuesday.

The funeral of Mrs. Dorothy Martin Hayes of Cynthia on Saturday morning at Whalen McCarty Funeral Home, conducted by Rev. James Guance. Dorothy was the only daughter of the late Ida and Onie Martin of Bourbon and Nicholas County, but she had spent most of her later life in Harrison County. She was the mother of nine children, 29 grandchildren, and 17 great-grandchildren. She will be missed by this large family and friends. She was buried in Saltwell Cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughan Mattox were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Parrell and daughters Lori Beth and Crystal.

Mr. and Mrs. Ron Allison of Sharpsburg were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gary Hollar. Chris Hollar, E.K.U., Richmond, was also home for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Jeffery Jolly

Anderson weds Jolly

Tamila Elizabeth Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Anderson, Sr. and Jeffery Jolly, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Jolly, was united in marriage Saturday, February 15, 1992, 5:30 p.m. at the Assembly of God Church with the groom's father officiating.

Mrs. Mary Catherine Knipe was the pianist and Ms. Cindy Graycraft was the vocalist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory satin off the shoulder gown with lace covering the skirt. The short satin train was attached to the back at the waist and with a satin bow.

She wore an ivory satin bow with a shoulder length veil and carried a bouquet of ivory sweetheart roses and ivy with seed pearls intermingled and ivory streamers.

Mrs. Malissa Feaback, aunt of the bride, served as matron of honor. She wore a midnight blue tea length tulle gown with a V-neck taffeta gown with a V-neck taffeta at the waist with a low cut and carried two stems red roses with ivy and baby's breath.

Homemakers

The Sunnyside Homemakers met on February 18, 1992 at the home of Louise Carbert in Carlisle. Eleanor Brandel gave the devotional, "One Day At A Time" and read from Ecc. third chapter. She also read a good poem "In Grandmother's Day" followed by prayer.

We answered roll with telling what we got for Valentine's Day.

Phyllis Brady read the report from the January meeting. Lavinia McFarland had attended the council meeting. She gave many announcements in the absence of Mrs. Wilson. Our annual meeting will be April 23 at the Carlisle Christian Church and the International buffet will be here also on May 4. The State meeting is in Lexington May 13.

We may decorate a window July 4th. There will be an Open House July 3 at the Extension Office from 2-4.

Louise Carbert showed us around six delicious meals she had cooked or knitted.

We had a sweeter meal and Valentine exchange. Eleanor Brandel gave the lesson on "Nutrition and Prevention of Chronic Disease in Adults Through a Healthy Diet and Lifestyle." She also gave a mini lesson on "Healthy."

Eula Carter had recreation and passed out our exchange Valentine's gifts.

Our next meeting will be at the Extension office March 9 at 1:30 p.m. The meeting was adjourned.

Wilma McClanahan gave the lesson "Prevention of Chronic Disease and Adults Through A Healthy Diet and Lifestyle." She also gave a mini lesson on "Healthy."
