Hall-Seithers exchange vows June 20

Lillian Kay Hall and Mary Kay Seithers were united in marriage during a candlelight ceremony on June 20, 1992 at the United Methodist Church in Carlisle with the Rev. Jim Doughton officiating.

The bride is the daughter of John Hall and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Hall all of Fleming Neon and the late Mr. and Mrs. Francis Magness of Cleveland, Ohio.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Darrell Seithers of Carlisle and grandson of Mitchell Seithers Parks of Maysville and Marguerite Hawkins of Flemingsburg.

The bride wore a white gown of the groom, played organ and sang "The Battle Hymn of Love".

Lillian Lethler served as wedding coordinator. Ron Barker as videographer and John Duncan as photographer.

A reception followed the ceremony at the church. Servers were Judy Hall, Karyanna Fite, Bonnie Grime, Phyllis Fite and Belinda Hawkins.

The bouquet was caught by Angela Beach.

The couple was ushered from the reception under a shower of bubbles and transported by horse and carriage driven by Doree Watkins.

The bride and groom are both graduates of Morehead State University where the

Headquarters Homemakers

Twelve members of the Headquarters Homemakers, Margie Wilson and Roberta Crawford enjoyed a delicious lunch at Shakerstown June 2, 1992.

Later in the day we traveled to Irish acre at Nonusuch, Kentucky and toured the old school building that has been converted into a lovely setting for many beautiful antiques on display. It was a day enjoyed by all.

Our September meeting will be at the Library with Jeanette Wallace, Louette Peaback and Gladys Cook serving as hostesses.
