Haizlip to be guest speaker for Carlisle High Alumni Banquet
The 1992 Carlisle High School Alumni Banquet will be held on Saturday, August 1, at the Worthington Center. The banquet begins at 6:30 p.m. in the center at Blue Licks Battlefield State Park.

The meal cost, paid at the door, is $10.00 per person, plus a $5.00 membership dues. Dinner will be catered by Dana Mitchell. There will be a choice of egg kassies with ice cream and strawberries or chocolate chip walnut pie. Music for the evening will be provided by keyboard/pianist Darryl McFarland.

John Haizlip attended Virginia Polytechnic Institute and the U.S. Naval Academy. He retired to Charleston, South Carolina, in 1978 after 20 years active military service and a variety of command positions that span the entire spectrum of naval operations, from communications to command-er an attack submarine division.

Following retirement, John Haizlip began a second career in education, teaching high school mathematics. He started one of the first advanced placement mathematics courses in South Carolina, allowing his students to qualify up to two semesters of calculus at any college or university in the nation.

Tickets to the 1992 Carlisle High School Alumni Banquet are $8.50 per person for reservations made no later than Monday, July 20. Reservations may be made by calling Chuck Conley at 289-5442 or (office) or 289-5442 (home). A check for the reservations, plus $5.00 annual Alumni Association membership dues, must be mailed before Monday, July 20, to Carlisle High School Alumni Association, c/o Chuck Conley, Treasurer, Nicholas County Courthouse, Carlisle, Kentucky 40311.
