DAR welcomes five new members

The daughters of the American Revolution has welcomed five new members into the organization during their centennial year, 1990-91. Minerva (Fickel) Shroy, Haverdale, resident of Nicholas County, became a member through her ancestor, James Stephenson. He served as a private and a corporal in the Army of the Revolution of the Pennsylvania Line from August 1776, until September 1778.

Linda is the daughter of Warren Stephenson formerly of Nicholas County, now a resident of Lexington, Kentucky. James is Warren's great-great-great-grandfather.

Birth. Mr. and Mrs. John Shroy of Carlisle announce the birth of their son, born February 15, 1992. He weighed 7 pounds, 5 ounces and has been named Raymond Earl. He has one brother, Tyler Taylor.
