Upper left: Manager Kathy Schending watches in fear as her sister, Elizabeth, stepped up to the charity stripe for two shots. "My stomach got butterflies," she said Upper right: The bench goes nuts after they are assured the team they trained to play on the court seals the 10th region championship. Tina Fryman still refused to look. Bottom left: Coach Barbara Kerney brings the Lady Jackets together in the last, heart wrenching minutes of the Clark County game. Meanwhile, Bottom right: the Lady-Jackets cheerleaders lead the crowd in maintaining the high energy level needed to carry Nicholas County through.
