

In the clear for two...
Junior guard Nikki Smoot finds breathing room to plug another of her 12 points in the Lady Jackets second round defeat of the Bath County Wildcats Saturday. In the championship game, Smoot was busier keeping the Clark County Cardinals out of scoring range to think of racking up points, of which she has proved more than capable.

Can't keep a Lady Jacket down

Both Senior Kristi Barton and Sophomore Kim Denkins are back on the court despite the fact each suffered ankle injuries during the 37th District championship game with Paris. Barton breaks across the key inside to block out Clark County Cardinals Stephany Davis as they wait to see if Denkins fast break jump shot will go in. Barton, enjoying a successful final season as a Lady Jackets starter. Barton and Denkins saw the Jackets fall easily to the Clark County Cardinals two years ago and the victory Sunday took on special significance.
