COMMUNITY

Who are those ladies? Above and below: From the costume to the political, Nicholas County Senior Citizens enjoyed a very active Friday afternoon donning costumes to celebrate Halloween for the morning to accepting the greetings of Democratic Congressional Candidate Scotty Elliott on a sweep of the area to consolidate his lead on the lead in the sixth district race over Republican candidate Chuck Elinger. These two pictures are proof that Halloween is not just for the young nor is politics solely the realm of youthful voters. In this case, however, they are staunchly democratic as far as congress is concerned.

Grosses celebrate 50th anniversary

Henry and Pauline Gross celebrated their 50th anniversary on October 15 in Springfield, Ohio at the LaComedia Dinner Theater. A group of 29 family and friends surprised the Grosses with a luncheon and play in honor of the occasion. Mrs. Gross is the niece of Hazel Sims, who was unable to attend the event because of the distance of travel involved. The Grosses were married on October 17, 1942 and have resided for most of their married life in Covington, Kentucky. Mr. Gross served in the Air Force in World War II, and worked for the Proctor and Gamble Company for 39 years before retiring in approximately 1985. Mrs. Gross has been a homemaker since the birth of her son, Gary, in 1953. The Grosses remain active in their church and community, and routinely visit their relatives and friends in Carlisle and Lexington.
